It will be a family friendly project, locals and tourist of all ages will enjoy Port Wonder.

Director's Report: Ms. Marinovich

Resolution 2018-014

A RESOLUTION BY THE LAKE CHARLES DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY LAKEFRONT SUBDISTRICT ("DDA-LDS") TO ENDORSE IN AFFIRMATIVE PORT WONDER, WHICH WILL HOUSE THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF LAKE CHARLES AND THE LOUISIANA DEPARTMENT OF WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES' SCIENCE CENTER FOR EDUCATION COMPLEX, WITHIN THE DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT LAKEFRONT SUBDISTRICT.

Update on ERDACE Development – Ms. Marinovich stated the owners will be in on Wednesday for a tour. Some issues have occurred on Mill St with the utilities, they will be putting a new utility box. With issues the ERDACE projects is on schedule.

The Interstate Beautification – The Ryan Street section has been completed. The next phase is Hwy 171 interchange – Accepting bid now. This bid package will have a one year maintenance item.

Downtown Streetscape Mill & Division – Contracted to Mr. Jessen, It will coordinate with ERDACE completion, and the City will install the sidewalks on Mill and Division Streets. Will be similar to the Sanchez building on Clarence and Ryan St.

Lakeshore Dr. Multi-Use Trail – Rolling right along with this project, still on time line and should be completed early next year

Civic Center Shoreline Erosion Repair North Beach to Promenade- Maintenance project, as we look at the Lake front shoreline, we see a lot of erosion along the sidewalks. These need some repair jobs. We have actually created a capital project to take care of some of these needs.

Ms. Marinovich asked Mr. Dean Day to please give an update on the amphitheater at the civic center. Mr. Day said that to get the Amphitheater up to date with the power needed would be $90,000.00. The grant rec'd was only $25,000.00. He does feel that the City should go forward with this project. Lake Charles could lose a lot of venue's that would come to the city.

Downtown Business Assoc. Report – Sara Laser

Ms. Sara Laser had a Waysign update – The DBA is growing so the signs tend to keep updating. The CVB has given a grant for $30,000.00 towards the project (PEG Project Enhancement Program) and Iron works by Josh will be building them. Everything is a go!

BeerFest – This year it will be moved to 1911 and the courthouse lawn. Kirby St will not be used. Beerfest is on March 9' 2019.
