The following topics will be discussed:

The Analysis of Impediment to Fair Housing Choice, is an assessment of a state or a unit of local government's laws, ordinances, statutes, and administrative policies as well as local conditions that affect the location, availability, and accessibility of housing.

The Consolidated Plan, required by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), will provide the framework for implementing housing and community development programs over the next five-year period to include fiscal years 2020-2025.

The Action Plan identifies the specific programs and activities to be undertaken with the federal funds received annually through the CDBG and HOME grants. The Plan provides a framework for activities and expenditures for housing, homeless needs, and various community development issues such as public (human) services, public infrastructure and improvements.

Special Emphasis will be placed on Community Development Block Grants with instructions on how to apply for Public Services grants.
