

TELEPHONE BOOK RECYCLING CONTEST

What is the Telephone Book Recycling Contest?

The Telephone Book Recycling Contest is a project of Team Green of Southwest Louisiana, for residents of SWLA to bring outdated telephone books to the Team Green Recycling Truck locations in the City.

What are the guidelines for participation in the contest?

Participants must be a public, private or parochial school of SWLA. Since, all schools are sent the information they are required to submit their Registration Form to the project chairperson.

What are the requirements once the school is registered?

The school is responsible for 1) assigning a contact person/coordinator; 2) transportation of books to drop-off site; 3) Reporting books collected; 4) furnishing volunteer information and 5) taking pictures for submission to Team Green of Southwest Louisiana.